FOREWORD

We realize that language and literature have a dominant role for education and social communication in the world. Many language-related problems in the 21st century may be caused by educational problems. Indonesia as the biggest community in the world has the responsibility to contribute towards harmonious and mutual understanding between Eastern and Western countries.

State Islamic University (UIN) Sunan Kalijaga as one of the leading universities in Indonesia always cares about and pays great attention to English language education. In pursue of this goal, UIN Sunan Kalijaga actively promotes consortium, colloquium, and study about such issues. A special event to discuss the contemporary issues in English linguistics, literature, and education has recently been organised by our English Department to realize our vision.

The papers submitted, a number of which have also been discussed, in this consortium are selectively collected into this proceeding. We believe it can give alternative solutions to cope with contemporary issues in English linguistics, literature, and education. By organizing this event, the English Department of Faculty of Adab and Cultural Sciences, UIN Sunan Kalijaga also makes an effort to realize the vision and mission of the institution in becoming the center of culture, language, and literature development which contributes to human life.
